- 10/10/99 "Ron Reagan On Ronald Reagan"- Ron Prescott Reagan, the only son of former President Ronald Reagan gives his assessment of the controversial biography of his father written by Edmund Morris. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
 "The Scuffed Halls Of Ivy - Emory University"- Professor Jeffrey Sonnenfeld of Emory University business school in Atlanta was accused of vandalizing the university, based on a security camera film which allegedly showed him putting scuff marks on the walls of a school corridor. Sonnenfeld, who not only lost his job at Emory but the offer of a position as dean at Georgia Tech business school, is suing Emory for slander and for destroying his reputation. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
 "Doing The Right Thing?"- a report on a court case filed against the Los Angeles Police by the family of Emil Matasareanu, a bank robber. They claim that Matasareanu, wounded during an armed robbery during which 18 people were wounded, was allowed to bleed to death. Police Officers who were at the scene said that medical help was unavailable and that they did their best to save the man's life. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mary Murphy)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's World" - what people are doing that might bring about the end of the world
- 10/17/99 "Why So Expensive?"- a report on problems resulting from the rising cost of prescription drugs in the U.S., focusing on the plight of senior citizens, many of whom have no health insurance to offset the cost of medication they need to keep them alive. As a last resort, some of these seniors are traveling to Canada or Mexico where the same drugs are sold at a fraction of the price. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Scott Bronstein)
 "Cop Killer"- 36 years ago Tommy Trantino was sentenced to death for the murder of two police officers. Following a 1972 U.S. Supreme Court decision declaring the death penalty unconstitutional, the state of New Jersey re-sentenced Trantino to life with parole. To date, Trantino's request for parole has been denied and he claims that he is still behind bars because of political pressure. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber)
 "Strive: A Second Look"- a followup to "Strive" (OAD: 05/04/97) about a privately-funded organization that helps unemployed people and welfare recipients get and keep jobs. The followup consists of interviews with some of the people who took part in the Strive program. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Mr. Rooney Goes To Sea" - Andy takes a ride in a nuclear submarine

- 10/24/99 "President Bradley?"- interview with former Senator, professional basketball player and now presidential candidate Bill Bradley and his wife, Ernestine. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
"Knee Deep In Fraud"- Medi-Cal, California's health care system, covers 5 million people, most of them poor and elderly. Problems have arisen because of widespread fraud involving the bogus sale of medical supplies and the filing of claims for services that have never been rendered. State authorities were aware of the abuse but until recently little was done to halt it. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Maurice Murad)
"Cruising For Fun And Profit"- a report on cruise lines catering to U.S. customers and making billions in tax-free dollars because the ships and their owners are registered in countries that do not impose a corporate income tax. Includes interviews with Congressmen Peter DeFazio and Gene Taylor of the House Transportation Committee which is looking into the situation. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
Andy Rooney Topic: "America Needs A Great President" - why are they rushing the political season?
- 10/31/99 "The Eyes"- millions of Americans with no sign of eye problems will eventually go blind because of genetic eye diseases most don't know they are carrying. Includes interviews with three men suffering from RP (retinitis pigmentosa) and Dr. Gene DeJuan, a scientist working on a computer chip that might one day restore vision to people with RP. (C: Morley Safer - p: Miriam Weintraub)
"You're A Good Man, Charlie Schultz"- interview with "Peanuts" cartoonist Charles Schultz (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mary Murphy)
"The Pill"- during the Persian Gulf War hundreds of thousands of American soldiers were given P-B (Pyridostigmine Bromide) to protect them from nerve gas exposure. Critics charge that the Pentagon ordered the drug to be given to U.S. troops even though they were aware that the experimental drug could have serious side effects (C: Ed Bradley - P: Liza McGuirk) (OAD: 09/29/96)
Andy Rooney Topic: "The Bank's Problem" - Andy gets a check from the bank

60 MINUTES II

- 10/05/99 "The Death of Capt. Odom"- Last July a U.S. Army reconnaissance plane mysteriously crashed into the mountains of Colombia, killing all five American soldiers and two Colombians on board. The family of the pilot, Captain Jennifer Odom, a West Point graduate and seasoned flier, has received little in the way of information from the Pentagon about the purpose of the flight and why the plane's wreckage and the victims' remains have never been fully recovered. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
"Express Kidnapping"- a report on "express kidnapping," a criminal epidemic affecting every aspect of life for Mexicans and for Americans visiting Mexico on business or on pleasure. The random kidnappings go unpunished because the majority of kidnappers are the police officers entrusted to protect Mexico's citizens. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum)
"One Child's Labor"- followup to "One Child's Labor" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 04/21/96), a profile of Craig Kielburger, a 13-year-old Canadian boy who founded "Free the Children" to focus attention on the suffering of child laborers overseas. The followup consists of an interview with Craig, now 16, who was the recipient of the Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt Medal of Freedom. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Gail Eisen)
"Uncommon Sense"- the importance of admitting mistakes (C: Jimmy Tingle)

- 10/12/99 "Hate On Trial"- a brutal attack by five white men in May 1998 left Carlos Colbert, a black Marine, a quadriplegic. The men called out racial epithets as they beat Colbert and left him for dead. Despite the fact that there were 75 witnesses to the attack, only one of the defendants pled guilty to committing a hate crime. The four other attackers pled guilty to assault and were released from prison after seven months. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy)
"The Decorators"- interview with Frank Pellecchia and Alexander Blarek, two decorators who were given millions of dollars of business by a wealthy Colombian drug dealer. Because of the association, Pellecchia and Blarek were convicted of racketeering and money laundering, sentenced to prison and their property confiscated. They appealed their conviction to the Supreme Court but the Court declined to hear the case. C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum)
"Understanding Suicide"- an interview with best selling author Kay Jamison, who has written a new book Night Falls Fast: Understanding Suicide. As one of the nation's leading experts on manic depression and suicide, Jamison believes suicide among teens and young adults is reaching epidemic proportions. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Andrew Wolff)
- 10/19/99 "Bombing Vieques"- for over 50 years, the U.S. Navy has used Vieques, an island off the coast of Puerto Rico, as its only live fire-training ground. After a civilian was killed in a bombing accident last spring, training was suspended. Without Vieques, the Navy says it can't adequately train servicemen to go into combat. The people of Puerto Rico claim that the war games cannot resume because they have seriously harmed the island's environment and their health. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Bill Owens)
"The Colonel"- an interview with Col. Carl Williams, former superintendent of the N.J. State Police, who was fired because of his comments about the relationship between race and crime. Williams maintains that his remarks were not racist but were based on statistics. He is now suing the state for his dismissal. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
"Bill & Kathy Swan"- followup to "Bill & Kathy Swan" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/15/92), a report on a Seattle, Washington couple who were convicted and imprisoned for the sexual abuse of their 3-year-old daughter and her friend. The followup consists of an interview with the Swans' daughter Beth, now 17, who has no doubt of her parents' innocence. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisen)
"Uncommon Sense"- art, morality and public money (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 10/26/99 "Evil, She Wrote"- an interview with British author Gitta Sereny whose latest book, Cries Unheard, looks into the mind of a child who kills. Sereny maintains that children are not born evil but are made that way by the circumstances of their lives. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley)
"Soldier of Misfortune"- a report on legal aliens, including some who have otherwise exemplary records, who are being threatened with deportation because of past minor criminal infractions. Includes interviews with Ralph Hesselbach, a German-born Vietnam veteran and Rafael Ramirez, a former U.S. Army Sergeant from the Dominican Republic. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa Cohen)
"Dance Theatre of Harlem"- followup to "The Dance Theatre of Harlem" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 09/07/96), a profile of Arthur Mitchell, founder and director of the world class dance company that began as an effort to get kids off the streets of Harlem. The followup consists of an interview with Mitchell, now 65. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Barbara Dury)
"Uncommon Sense"- Mike Tyson and communism (C: Jimmy Tingle)

48 HOURS

- 10/07/99 "Why Did Josh Kill?"- Last November eight-year-old Maddie Clifton of Jacksonville, Florida went outside to play and never came back. Seven days later a city-wide search led to the home of Josh Phillips, a 14-year-old neighbor, where Maddie's body was found under the boy's water bed. The teen-ager confessed to the killing and was brought to trial, found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison without parole. It was discovered that the boy had a brain lesion and that he was viewing pornographic material before he committed the crime, facts that might have been causative but were not admissible as evidence in court. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Loen Kelley)
- 10/14/99 "Fatal Attraction"- Thomas Capano was a successful Delaware lawyer who managed to live a double life, appearing to be a devoted family man while having affairs with a number of women. When Anne Marie Fahey, one of these women, mysteriously disappeared in June 1996, police were at first stumped. Finally evidence led to Capano, who apparently killed Anne Marie when she tried to break off their relationship. Capano was subsequently tried for murder and given the death penalty. Broadcast includes an interview with Ann Rule, best-selling author of And Never Let Her Go, a novel about the murder. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Anthony Batson, Peter Henderson)
- 10/21/99 "One Last Chance"- a followup to BEFORE YOUR EYES: "One Last Chance" (OAD: 06/25/96), the story of Juan Carlos Castro, a juvenile delinquent raised on the streets of Tampa, Florida. Born to a prostitute mother and a drug-dealing father, Juan became a ward of the state at six when his parents were charged with abuse and neglect. Falling into a life of crime, he received one last chance to stay out of Florida State Prison when Tampa Detective Carlos Somellán enrolled him in an experimental rehabilitation program for repeat teenage offenders. The broadcast brings us up to date with Juan Carlos who having reverted to a life of crime, is tried for purse-snatching and at 19 is sentenced to 35 years in prison. (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Abra Potkin)
- 10/26/99 "Gambling With Your Life"- Special Edition on gambling, the number one form of entertainment in the United States, focusing on just how far it has gone and what price it is taking on society. Includes interviews with: Melanie Morgan, a television anchor in San Francisco who overcame her addiction to gambling; Kenny Glick, a day trader; Terri Candito, whose addiction to playing the lottery has left her in debt; and Carlos Rabeano, a cab driver who trades his portfolio of stocks using a cell phone and a laptop computer. (C: Troy Roberts, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Sophia Kim, Paul LaRosa, Alec Sirken, Chuck Stevenson)
- 10/28/99 "Deadly Secret"- a behind-the-scenes look at the Kalamazoo, Michigan's cold case unit's investigation of the September 1994 disappearance of Khristine Smith, a seemingly happy wife and mother. Russ Smith, her husband, claimed that Khristine had abandoned him and their daughter Candace for another man. With no body and little evidence, Det. Dan Westin, head of the cold case unit, was finally able to wear Smith down to the point where he confessed to his crime. A court convicted him of murder and he was sentenced to 35 to 70 years in prison. (C: Harold Dow - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Loen Kelley, Mead Stone)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

10/10/99 "Gifts From God"- focusing on the contributions and influence of women in Christian and Jewish ministry, the broadcast (taped in St. Louis) visits a wide variety of these women including Roman Catholic nuns who have assumed pastoral duties formerly performed by priests. Also included is footage of religious services conducted by some of these women who talk about their triumphs, frustrations and some problems that still remain.
(E.P. John P. Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)
